

Asylum support

This section explains how asylum seekers can get help with accommodation and living costs while they are waiting for a decision on their asylum claim.

Applying for UKBA asylum support

This page looks at the first stages of applying for asylum support - when to apply, screening, one stop services and induction.

Eligibility for support

This page contains 'Basic eligibility criteria', 'Section 55 procedures', 'Challenging Section 55 decisions', 'Refusal/withdrawal of support', and 'Appealing to the Asylum Support Adjudicators'

How support is given

This page is on how support is issued. It deals with Subsistence, ARC payments, and Accommodation (initial and dispersal). It also covers topics on what happens to support if there is a change in circumstances and with UKBA support after an asylum decision. It deals with education costs, maternity provision and hospital admissions.

Special needs

This page looks at support for those with special needs - eligibility, community care services available and good practice and recommendations for Social Services.

Unaccompanied children

This page looks at the definition of an unaccompanied child and who is responsible for their care. It gives details of their support entitlements before turning 18 and what happens to support once they turn 18.
