

After a decision

This section focuses on what happens at the end of the asylum process. It addresses such issues as asylum decisions; family reunion; overseas travel; benefits; applying for British citizenship, and accessing education, training and employment.

Positive decisions

This page discusses the various positive decisions at the end of the asylum process and how they are reviewed.

Family reunion

This page discusses family reunion for people granted refugee status, humanitarian protection and discretionary leave.

Overseas travel

This page provides information on the types of travel documents that people granted refugee status, humanitarian protection and discretionary leave need for overseas travel.

Benefits

Staying in the UK

This page provides information on permanent settlement in the UK and integrating into society. It spells out the criteria for naturalising as a British citizen.

Built on OneStopCMS

©2012 The British Refugee Council

British Refugee Council, (commonly called the Refugee Council), is a company limited by guarantee registered in England and Wales, [No 2727514] and a registered charity, [No 1014576] Registered office: 240-250 Ferndale Road, London SW9 8BB, United Kingdom. VAT registration no: 936 519 988.